BEEF BARONS ON TRIAL AT LAST

Ten Packers Brought to Book
This Morning Before
Judge Carpenter

DEFEATED AFTER YEARS OF EVADING THE LAW

Penitentiary Yawns for Men on Charge of Conspiracy and Trade Restraint

CHICAGO, Dec. 6.—Brought to book after a hunt of more than seven years, J. Ogden Armour and nine other Chicago packers were placed on trial here today before Federal District Judge Carpenter on charges which may land them behind the bars of the federal penitentiary for criminal conspiracy, and violation of the Sherman anti-trust law.

Story of the Case
CHICAGO, Dec. 6.—Ten millionaire magnates of the packing business today answered before the bar of the United States circuit court for the northern district of Illinois to the biggest of Uncle Sam's suits under the criminal section of the Sherman anti-trust law.

An array of the most expensive lawyers in the country was on hand to defend the chief barons of charges of conspiracy in restraint of trade as a penalty for which the government demands a term in jail.

Nearly eight years of legal maneuvering has been occupied in actually bringing the so-called "beef trust" to trial. Almost unremittently since 1903, the department of justice has been encamped on its trail, but the beast has evaded capture in a jungle of legal obstacles, up until today.

It was back in 1902 that the federal government first took a hand in interference with plans of the packing magnates. The department of justice secured an injunction on February 18 from Judge Peter S. Grosscup, of the federal court, restraining the packers from organizing a giant combine. Two days later an investigation was begun, almost incidentally the same alleged acts being under fire as were cited in the suit which opened today.

Percy Richards returned to Los Angeles this morning after spending yesterday here.

Mrs. J. R. Stephens of 404 East Twentieth street has gone to Santa Cruz county to visit relatives. She will make a two or three weeks' stay. Indictments were returned against sixteen packers on July 1. Six of the sixteen then named are among the ten defendants today.

The suit was bitterly fought. Counsel for the packers pleaded immunity for their clients, on the ground that back in 1904, they had freely informed the government of the plans of the combination while Commissioner of Corporations James R. Garfield was investigating the trust situation, and upon evidence they furnished, the government sought to incriminate them. Judge Humphrey agreed with them, and on March 21, 1906, announced his famous "immunity" opinion—the same that caused the then President Roosevelt to announce his public disapproval and censure.

The government made another ineffectual attempt to secure indictments in the early part of 1908. In 1909 the grand jury also probed the combine, but did not return indictments.

On March 21, 1910, however, after the government had laid careful plans the grand jury indicted the National Packing Company and ten of its subsidiary concerns, on the ground that it was a combination in restraint of trade. Dissolution of the trust was demanded. This suit was under the civil section of the Sherman law.

On the ground that the indictment was faulty, Judge Kenesaw M. Landis on June 24, 1910, sustained the demurrer entered by the packers and dismissed the indictment. At the same time he directed another investigation by a specially created grand jury, which on July 24, began its labors. Probably no jury in the country went into a case in more detail than the twenty-three members to whom Judge Landis recommended investigation of the packers. More than 200 witnesses were examined. Some of them were brought from distant cities. Stormy scenes were enacted behind the closed doors of the jury room, and on August 11, the inquisitorial body sprang the first of its sensations by returning indictments charging perjury by Thomas G. Lee manager of the dressed beef sales department of Armour & Co. and alleging that Alfred R. Urton chief conspirator to the same company, had conspired to do away with the case with three other employees. It was asserted that Urton and the three stenographers destroyed stenographic notes of var-

Advertisers Urged To Have Copy Early

The volume of advertising regularly carried by the Register has grown to such proportions that in order to handle it properly it is necessary that all display copy be in the Register office by 10 a. m. of the day of publication. LARGE SIZED ADVERTISEMENTS MUST BE IN THE HANDS OF THE PRINTERS A DAY IN ADVANCE OF THE TIME THEY ARE TO APPEAR. In consequence of getting their copy in early, advertisers will be given even better service than in the past, for more care and time can naturally be given to the setting of the announcements. Then, too, it will permit of the Register's fast perfecting press starting at a fixed time each day. AND THIS IS IMPERATIVE, FOR WITH THE REGISTER GOING INTO A BIG MAJORITY OF THE HOMES IN THE CITY AND COUNTY, it is patent that all the work in the different departments must be handled with clock-like regularity. With this frank statement of conditions, the Register feels that it can count upon the hearty co-operation of its patrons.

THIS THE BIGGEST OF ALL BIG MOVEMENTS

Contributed by the Men's Committee
Santa Ana is very fortunate indeed in being selected as one of the auxiliary cities in the great international campaign of the Men and Religion Forward Movement, which is spreading over this country now at a wonderful rate.

This movement will mean much to the moral and religious uplift of the men and boys in this country as it means the getting back to the use of the scriptures as the soul ruling of life's conduct, the renewal, if you please, of the ancient power of the word of God, so that the messages of this age with the same tremendous meaning with which they came to the men who heard them first; so that they shall cease to be merely religious literature, and shall come to be spirit and life to the men of this age. If rightly perpetuated, the Gospel of Jesus Christ is literally the biggest thing that can occupy the mind of any man. It is far bigger than all political problems put to-

DISTRICT SOLD RIGHT-OF-WAY FOR $2,000

Sugar Company Obtains Sewer Line Easement on West Bank

SIPHON UNDER RIVER CHANNEL

Purchaser to Protect Protection District From Litigation

By resolution yesterday, Newbert Protection district sold to Southern California Sugar Co. right-of-way for a sewer line along the west bank of the Santa Ana river channel from a point west of the factory to tidewater. The consideration is $2000.

The application for this right-of-way was made by Nickey and Case as a committee of the sugar factory, and in the negotiations yesterday Attorney H. C. Head also represented the sugar factory. The deed is to be drawn up and the pipeline established and maintained according to provisions and restrictions recommended by Attorney E. E. Keech and Engineer H. Clay Kellogg for the district.

The right-of-way is an 8-foot strip 2655 feet long. The pipeline is to be established four feet from the west line of the district's right-of-way. The siphon at the upper end of the right-of-way must be at least two feet beneath the bottom of the channel. Concrete arches must be used where the pipeline crosses Ditch No. 1 of the Talbert Drainage District. The conduit must be perfectly tight. The sugar company may use the pipeline for water and sewage. The sugar company must protect the district from all litigation that may arise out of the building or maintenance of the pipeline.

TURKEY CONFIDENT OF GAINING WAR

But Italians Win In Pitched Battle at Camp in Desert Oasis

BERLIN, Dec. 6.—The Turkish government is not only full of confidence as to the outcome of the war with Italy, but is more than ever determined to fight, according to the opinion of Mahmoud Moukhtar Pasha, former Turkish minister of marine, who came to Berlin Monday night. The visitor, who says he is here on purely private business, is one of the most influential of the Young Turk leaders in Constantinople and has for weeks been in close touch with official circles here.

Italian Victory
TRIPOLI, Dec. 6.—A force of 20,000 Italians attacked and occupied the Turkish military camp on the oasis of Ain-Zara, after a severe battle, in which both sides are reported to have lost heavily.

The fighting lasted from daylight to dusk, when 8000 Turks and Arabs disappeared rapidly to the southeast. A long line of camels was with them, bearing their wounded.

STUDENT GIVEN NINETY DAYS IN JAIL

I. W. W. Lecturer Landed Upon for Breaking From a Gang of Prisoners

WOULD GET BACK TO THE UNIVERSITY

Robert Athey Will be Given Bail and Chain to Carry on the Street

Robert Athey, a student of the University of California, son of a Wisconsin lawyer, received the greatest shock of his career this morning when Justice Cox sent him to jail for ninety days, which added to the thirty the young man has already served will give him 120 days' experience in sociological studies as furnished by the Orange county jail.

Athey was arrested for defacing placards on freight cars. He declared he was a lecturer for the I. W. W., and the advice that he was writing upon the placards was along the line of the doctrine of that organization. He pleaded guilty to vagrancy, and was sent to jail for thirty days.

Though he could talk a lot, Athey was not much good at actual work. He was taken out on the chain gang of prisoners that is being used to clean streets. He ran away, and gave the officers a merry chase before he was finally captured near Bolsa.

Today Athey's time under the thirty day sentence was up, and Jailer Boynton swore to a complaint charging Athey with breaking away.

Athey was brought into court. He pleaded not guilty to the charge, and Justice Cox had put Constable Squires on oath to testify when Athey quickly changed his plea to guilty.

"I want to get back to the University of California by the first of the year," said Athey. "I took a year's work there in pathology, and I want to continue my studies."

"What were you doing down here?" asked Cox.

"I had to lay off one semester because the courses I wanted were not being given."

"Didn't you tell me you were going to Kansas City?" asked Squires.

"Yes, I was going there for the Independent Workers of the World. But I changed my mind."

Athey said he wanted to get out in the open air, and did not want that ninety-day sentence.

"You'll get out in the open air, all right," said the judge, having in mind the determination of the jailer to make Athey work if nothing more than to carry a ball and chain. Athey has boasted that he would not work while in jail.

On his way from the courtroom to the jail Athey cursed loudly.

300 WOMEN MOBBED TRIANGLE FACTORY OWNERS YESTERDAY

NEW YORK, Dec. 6.—A mob of 300 women, survivors of the Triangle Waist Factory fire, in which 146 girls lost their lives, attacked Isaac Harris and Max Blanck, proprietors of the waist company, when the men appeared in court yesterday to stand trial for alleged manslaughter. All the court officers in the building and the police reserves were called out to check the assaults.

With torn clothing and disheveled hair the defendants were released finally and escorted under heavy police protection to the courtroom.

The women had been summoned as witnesses for the prosecution.

BRIBERY ARRESTS ARE EXPECTED

Three of McNamara's Defense Said to be Named As Likely to be In Toils

LOS ANGELES, Dec. 6.—Rumors of further arrests in the bribery developments of the McNamara trial, were circulated today, the rumors going so far as to name specifically three men who had been connected with the defense against whom, it is rumored, the district attorney had compiled information. When Assistant District Attorney Ford was asked about the matter he asserted that he was not in the habit of taking the public into his confidence regarding the plans of his office.

The Episcopal ladies will hold a bazaar at Moose Hall, over Horton-Spurgeon's furniture store, Thursday afternoon, Dec. 7, from 2 o'clock. A splendid dinner will be served from 5:30 to 7, for 35 cents.

DYNAMITING PROBE UNEARTHING CLUES

Sleuths In Indianapolis Find Mail Order Tracks Of "Jim" McNamara—Gompers Gets Vote Of Confidence

INDIANAPOLIS, Dec. 6.—New clues involving the acts of John McNamara, secretary of the Iron Workers here, were reported today from the investigations of the federal detectives who are endeavoring to connect the McNamara brothers with a long chain of dynamiting throughout the country. The government sleuths report that they have found records of many money-order transactions through the Minneapolis postoffice between John J. McNamara and numerous other persons. It is also reported that Jas. B. McNamara did business under the name of C. J. Sandusky, and that considerable mail was received and delivered by him through that fictitious name.

After a conference the international unions having their headquarters here telegraphed to President Samuel Gompers of the American Federation of Labor, assuring him of their continued confidence in him, despite the numerous attacks being made on him.

McNAMARA'S DETAILED CONFESSION WILL STARTLE

LOS ANGELES, Dec. 6.—The federal probe into the dynamiting outrages which are alleged by the National Erectors' Association, and the National Manufacturers' Association, to have been the result of an "inner circle" within the ranks of organized labor, promise to overshadow even the

MILWAUKEE SOCIALISTS THROWN FROM OFFICE

MILWAUKEE, Dec. 6.—The Milwaukee Socialist administration received the worst blow of its eighteen months in office yesterday. The supreme court, in decisions, declared the choicest ideas of the administration illegal, threw several officials out of office, and decided against the administration's efforts to collect $15 per car license for ten years, which the administration expected to bring in nearly $200,000 from the traction company.

The decision vacating the offices filled by Socialist experts is based on a technicality in the selection of these officials, when the Socialists named party members without regard for the civil service law. The chief of the list is C. A. Mullen, son of an asphalt trust official, who was brought here from New York to induct the city into the paving business on its own account.

Officials Are Liable
Four of his subordinates, all Socialists, come under the decision, and as they have been in office for a large part of the administration, the city treasurer and city controller are in a predicament as they probably are individually liable for the salaries paid these men, and for money spent under their direction.

The court's opinion will have a bearing on about $3,000,000 worth of street improvements.

SENATOR BOURNE WILL OFFER BILL FOR PARCELS POST

WASHINGTON, Dec. 6.—With the end in view of supplying a basis for the work of the Committee on Post-offices and Postroads, Senator Jonathan Bourne soon will introduce a bill providing for a parcels post system. The measure will authorize an increase to eleven pounds in the size of fourth-class mail packages from the present maximum of four pounds, and at the same time provide for a diminution of charges from the present rate of 1 cent an ounce. Pound packages will be carried for 10 cents, with an additional charge of 4 cents for each additional pound. For the smallest packages provided for, weighing eight ounces, there will be a charge of 5 cents. In cases in which the package does not go beyond the rural route on which it originates, the charge will be reduced one-half.

DOW, PROGRESSIVE, CAPTURES SANTA MONICA MAJORITY
SANTA MONICA, Dec. 6.—Roscoe Dow was elected mayor of Santa Monica yesterday, winning by 400 majority. He headed the Progressive ticket, and most of his running mates won. M. K. Barretto was elected city treasurer by 300 majority. C. L. Bales was chosen city assessor by a close vote. G. A. Murray had no opposition for city clerk. At midnight the count had not reached the other offices on the ticket.

Too Slow--Not Too Hasty

Some objectors to the Polytechnic school bonds claim the Board of Education has been "too hasty" in the matter.

AND THIS IN THE FACE OF THE FACT THAT EVERY OTHER CITY IN SOUTHERN CALIFORNIA HAS ALREADY PROVIDED SUCH A SCHOOL FOR ITS CHILDREN, AND SANTA ANA IS ABSOLUTELY THE LAST TO TAKE UP THIS POPULAR FORM OF EDUCATION.

Even in our own county, Anaheim and Fullerton are building magnificent polytechnic schools; the former having voted $130,000 and the latter $140,000 for that purpose.

And still we are "too hasty!"

The same kind of "haste," it may be remarked, that we have been exhibiting all along on matters of public enterprise.

We are not too hasty; we are too slow on this polytechnic school.

And we have already lost prestige by it.

Let us delay no longer, for such delay is a detriment to our city.

ALEXANDER'S MAJORITY SECURE

Noon Count in Los Angeles Shows His Lead is 31,300 Over Socialist Candidate

LATER RETURNS SURE TO INCREASE HIS MAJORITY

More Women Voted Than Men —"Wets" Ahead at Noon in Vote of 66,755 to 23,825

LOS ANGELES, Dec. 6.—The official count from the office of the city clerk at noon gives Mayor George Alexander 66,755 votes, Harriman 37,066, making Alexander's lead 31,300 at that time. This was the complete count of 270 precincts out of 310, with forty-eight yet to be counted. The same count shows a vote against prohibition of 66,755 to 23,825.

Later returns will increase rather than decrease Alexander's lead. It will be twenty-four hours before the entire official count will be obtainable.

TREMENDOUS VOTE WAS POLLED IN THE ELECTION

The total vote of yesterday's election in Los Angeles in which the Good Government forces were pitted against the Socialists, who had won a place on the city ticket by giving their majority candidate, Job Harriman, a majority over George Alexander, incumbent, was amazing, it being placed unofficially at 132,572. This is 86 per cent of the estimated legal registration of 160,000, making a proportion greatly in excess of any previous vote in Los Angeles, or probably any other of the big cities of this country.

Women Showed Citizenship

The vote of the women swelled the result, the new voters polling almost their full strength, casting 73,000 votes out of the registration of 83,000. It is estimated that 55,000 of these votes were cast for Alexander. The women are highly praised for their display of civic devotion and for the business-like way in which they cast their ballots, as well as in getting out not only their own but the vote of the men. The utmost courtesy was shown women at the polls, and many happy incidents were recorded through the day. The Woman's Progressive League with 1200 workers in ninety-five precincts brought tens of thousands to the aid of Good Government.

Harriman's Poor Showing

Even in the precincts that had been conceded to the Socialists with any estimate they pleased to make, the Socialist majorities were not what had been expected. Harriman failed in every instance to hold up his own precincts in a proportionate vote to that received at the primaries.

Alexander on the contrary carried the precincts west and southwest of Main street by much greater proportionate majorities than the primary election gave him. He and his associates on the Good Government ticket received overwhelming majorities in their claimed precincts.

NEW YORK, Dec. 6.—A dispatch received in New York says the United Fruit Company steamers, aboard which are six hundred members of the American Bankers' Association and their families are all safe and that the ships weathered the hurricane sweeping the Gulf of Mexico and the Caribbean Sea. They were returning from a trip to Panama when the storm overtook them.

MAY GET NEXT CONFERENCE

Santa Ana Invites Y. M. C. A. to Come Here—Local Boys Attend

The delegates from Orange county at the eighth annual conference of the older boys from the Young Men's Christian Associations and the high schools of Southern California returned Monday from three days spent together at Riverside. This county was represented by twenty-six—high school boys, one employed boy, two volunteer leaders and the new county secretary of the Orange County Young Men's Christian Associations, R. J. Hamilton.

The delegates attending were as follows: From Santa Ana, Bruce Wallace, Emmett Raitt, Fay Wright, Geo. Paul, Ernest Plavan, Leonard Hamaker; from Anaheim, Ralph Jayne, Edwin Miller, Raymond Elliott, Floyd Fergus and Vern Ward; from Fullerton, George Hampton, Julian Gobar, Lawrence Sherwood, Raymond Starbuck, Will Key; from Orange, Fred Lentz, Orla Briggs; from Huntington Beach, Carlos Warner, Guy Preston, Carroll Hyman, Melvin Buster, Edward Hubbard; from Garden Grove, George Oertly, Wayne Holt, Lloyd Castleman, Warren Ashleigh, Wilbur Harper, Mr. Ludden, former county secretary, also attended.

George Oertly acted as chairman of the Orange county delegation, speaking at a number of the sessions. Julian Gobar spoke at one of the sessions on the topic, "Opportunities in My Community for Leadership," and although he substituted on the program for another speaker who failed to come and had only a few minutes for preparation, he gave a good talk, with many practical suggestions.

Among the others who took part in the convention in some public way were Guy Preston, Bruce Wallace, Will Key, and Mr. Hamilton, who gave a number of recitations and an original medley at the camp fire rally on Saturday night.

Among the speakers at the conference were Rev. R. G. Freeman of Pasadena, W. D. MacRae, state secretary of county Y. M. C. A. work; Mayor Evans, of Riverside; H. E. Dennis, Y. M. C. A. secretary of the University of Southern California; Raymond Hanson, secretary of boys' work of the San Francisco Y. M. C. A.; E. E. Kelly, of Pomona; George Irving, secretary of the Y. M. C. A. of Pomona College; T. J. Wilkie, assistant state secretary; Prof. J. H. Francis, superintendent of schools of Los Angeles, and J. E. Sprunger, state secretary.

This is the largest boys' conference ever held in California, and the most successful. Over three hundred delegates were present, Los Angeles having the largest number from any one place, with fifty-six delegates.

The county secretary extended an invitation to the conference to meet next year in Santa Ana, and Pasadena invited the conference to that place. It was referred to the state Y. M. C. A. committee for further consideration, it being the general opinion that Santa Ana should have the next conference if such would help it to obtain a Y. M. C. A. building such as it is in much need of.

The conference left a strong impression on the minds of the delegates and many resolutions for lives of greater service for others and of consecration to a deeper Christian life were formed. The towns and high schools of Southern California which were fortunate enough to be represented at this conference will feel the inspiration of the good effects of this conference for many years.

CAUSE FOR ALARM

Loss of Appetite or Distress After Eating a Symptom That Should Not Be Disregarded

—Appetite is just a natural desire for food. Loss of appetite or stomach distress after eating indicate indigestion or dyspepsia. Over-eating is a habit very dangerous to a person's good general health.

It is not what you eat but what you digest and assimilate that does you good. Some of the strongest, healthiest, and healthiest persons are moderate eaters.

There is nothing that will cause more trouble than a disordered stomach, and many people daily contract serious maladies simply through disregard or abuse of the stomach.

We urge all in Santa Ana who suffer from any stomach derangement, indigestion or dyspepsia, whether acute or chronic, to try Rexall Dyspepsia Tablets, with the distinct understanding that we will refund their money without question or formality, if after reasonable use of this medicine, they are not perfectly satisfied with the results. We recommend them to our customers every day, and have yet to hear of any one who has not been benefited by them. We honestly believe them to be without equal. They give very prompt relief, aiding to neutralize the gastric juices, strengthen the digestive organs, to regulate the bowels, and thus to promote perfect nutrition, and eradicate all unhealthy symptoms.

We urge you to try a 25c box of Rexall Dyspepsia Tablets, which gives 15 days' treatment. At the end of that time, your money will be returned to you if you are not satisfied. Of course, in chronic cases length of treatment varies. For such cases, we have two larger sizes, which sell for 50c, and $1.00. Remember, you can obtain Rexall Remedies in this community only at our store—The Rexall Store, Dean's Drug Store, 104 West Fourth street.

SMITH CONTINUES TO IMPROVE IN HEALTH

Congressman S. C. Smith, of Bakerville is not to be gerrymandered out of office after all, "perhaps due to the interest of the Graphic and to other influences friendly to the member from the Eighth California district," writes the modest editor of that excellent journal. Smith continues to show marked signs of improvement and barring the unexpected, he will be ready to return to Washington in about four weeks. He is convalescing amid comfortable surroundings on an Adams street and is almost his normal self. His friends were fearful at one time that an alleged interview with him in a Los Angeles morning paper would be distorted to his disadvantage, but when it was disclosed that the reported statement never had emanated from Mr. Smith, the danger was quickly dissipated.

SETTLED IT OUT OF COURT

Suit in Which John Cubbon Was Plaintiff Will Probably Be Dismissed

The suit of John Cubbon against the California Drilling & Petroleum Co. has been settled out of court, and a dismissal of the action will probably be entered soon by the county clerk on the request of Attorney E. E. Keech for the plaintiff. Cubbon sued for himself and a number of other Santa Anans.

The complaint alleged that payments were made on a contract that the money would be expended in drilling a well in one of the San Joaquin valley oil fields. The well was not drilled, and the suit was brought for the return of the money.

At one time the plaintiffs sought to restrain Frank Monaghan, one of the defendants, from disposing of his property here, but on assurances that no attempt would be made to defeat any judgment that might be secured, the court did not issue the restraining order. The plaintiff and the defendants have come to terms and the money agreed upon as settlement has been paid over.

MOST SEVERE COLD IS EASILY BROKEN

Surely Cures a Cold and Ends Grippe Misery in a Few Hours

—Pape's Cold Compound is the result of three years' research at a cost of more than fifty thousand dollars, and contains no quinine, which we have conclusively demonstrated is not effective in the treatment of colds or grippe.

It is a positive fact that a dose of Pape's Cold Compound, taken every two hours until three consecutive doses are taken, will end the grippe and break up the most severe cold, either in the head, chest, back, stomach, limbs or any part of the body.

It promptly relieves the most miserable headache, dullness, head and nose stuffed up, feverishness, sneezing, sore throat, running of the nose, mucous catarrhal discharges, soreness, stiffness and rheumatic twinges.

Take this harmless Compound as directed, with the knowledge that there is no other medicine made anywhere else in the world, which will cure your cold or end grippe misery as promptly and without any other assistance or bad after-effect, as a 25-cent package of Pape's Cold Compound, which any druggist in the world can supply.

MORE ROOM FOR TREES ALONG STREET

Ben E. Turner Explains His Position in Regard to Narrowing Street

Many of the residents of East First street are heartily in favor of the project to widen the parking and narrow the street. The matter came before the City Trustees Monday night in the form of a petition, which was referred back to the petitioners for further signatures.

Ben E. Turner, who circulated the petition, is enthusiastic in his approval of the plan. He says that thirty-two feet is ample width for a residence street. If the parking is widened trees may grow without interfering with the sidewalks and curbs. He called attention to a giant black acacia on Bush street just north of First street. That tree is greater in diameter than much of the parking spaces in the city.

Turner explained his position to the City Trustees in a communication, which read as follows:

"Gentlemen:—At the request of some of my neighbors I have circulated a petition which has been placed in your hands tonight for consideration.

"After a trip east during which I had my eyes wide open, I decided that it is best for all parties concerned to have a narrow driveway well paved and properly cared for, than a wide one half covered with unsightly weeds and all kinds of garbage.

"Some seven years ago I put in a new redwood curb in front of my property on East First street with a parking of only about four feet.

"At the same time I planted a little tree about 10 inches high and as large as a lead pencil.

"That tree has grown until it is now some tree. The fact is its almost as large around at the ground as the space between the cement walk and the wooden curbing. More

Cologne Cathedral

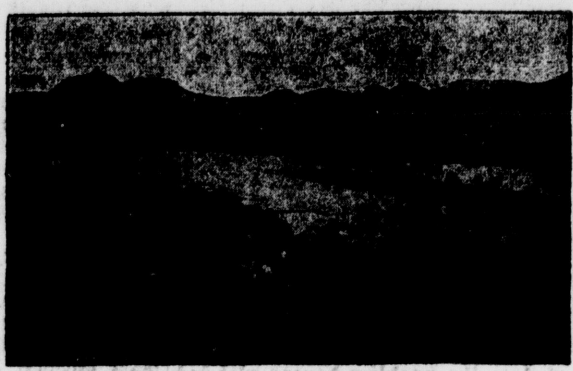

Germany

Drachenfels

HERE the glacier melts far up among the lonely rocks of the St. Gotthard the Rhine has its origin. It at first flows through the highlands of the Swiss, then through Germany and finally through Holland. From its birth in the Alps to its death in the North Sea the river is one of wonderful beauty. There is a charm in its youthful impetuosity as it rushes along among the snowclad peaks of Switzerland, and there is a stately grace in its peaceful progress through the fertile meadows of Holland to its grave in the all-embracing ocean. But the great fame of Father Rhine is derived from the middle part of its course lying between the borders of the German Empire. The stretch from Mayence to Cologne has been called the "romantic Rhine," and it is indeed one of the finest pieces of river scenery in the world.

"I am glad now that I put in redwood at that time as there sure would be trouble on First street between the tree and the cement curb. I am a peaceable citizen and wish to have everything quiet on the street where I make my home.

"If this plan meets your approval grant our request.

"You will please us and the city will have saved running the street sweeper through East First street twice a day as long as time goes on.

REFORESTATION COMMITTEE STRONG IN OPPOSITION TO WATER COMMISSION BILL

RIVERSIDE, Dec. 6.—A meeting of the Tri-Counties Reforestation Committee, of which Francis Cuttle of this city, is president, was held here yesterday, being largely attended by members of the committee from San Bernardino, Orange and Riverside counties. A large portion of the time was consumed in discussing the bill introduced in the present special session of the legislature, creating a Water Commission, and granting to such a body large powers.

A committee consisting of E. E. Keach of Orange county, Francis Cuttle of Riverside and E. D. Roberts of this city, was appointed to hasten to Sacramento and introduce into the legislature the following resolution opposing the bill introduced by Assemblyman Clarke of Oakland:

Whereas, Assemblyman Clarke of Oakland has introduced in the state legislature a bill covering the appropriation and use of all waters of the state of California; and whereas, the public waters of the southern portions of this state have long since been fully appropriated and applied to beneficial use; and whereas, the water users in this portion of the state rest upon riparian rights, prescription and grant, as well as appropriations; and whereas, the adjudication of such rights is a delicate matter and the exercise of such judicial powers should be carefully provided for; and whereas, there has been created by the legislature of the state of California a State Conservation Commission, among whose duties are the collection of data pertaining to the subjects of "Water, the Use of Water, Water Power, Reclamation and Irrigation, and for revising, systematizing and reforming the laws of this state, upon, concerning, regarding or appertaining to the said subjects;" and whereas, said commission is now engaged in securing data on the subjects above referred to at a large expense to the state of California, for the purpose of suggesting changes in the laws regarding the said subjects; and whereas, the said commission has not yet completed the investigations upon which it is engaged, but intends to make such report at the next regular session of the legislature of the state of California; and whereas, time, care and wise co-operation of the various sections of the state and the representatives of water rights in such sections should be utilized in preparing safe and satisfactory legislation upon the subjects embraced in said Assembly bill No. —; and whereas, the limited power and time of the present session of the legislature and the great work it has to perform will hardly admit of such care and attention being given to said proposed bill; now, therefore, be it

Resolved, by the members of the Tri-Counties Reforestation Committee of San Bernardino, Riverside and Orange counties, representing the users of water in the Santa Ana River and tributary streams:

(1) That we respectfully petition the legislature of the state of California not to legislate upon the subject embraced in said bill at the present special session.

(2) That a proper bill be prepared by a committee embracing such officers of the state as have the subject in charge, such scientific experts as are specially qualified for the task and such practical irrigators and administrators of the water systems of the state as are conversant with the conditions in all its different sections, and after due consideration and elaboration, the same be presented at the next general session of the legislature of the state.

(3) That copies of such bill so prepared should be printed and distributed throughout the state to all those interested in the subject matter, in ample time for due consideration, discussion and action, before the same shall be introduced and put upon its passage.

(4) That in the preparation of said bill there should be co-operation between the members of the committee and the water interests throughout the state, in such exchange of information, suggestions and discussion as will result in due and fair consideration of every phase of the subject and interest involved, to the end that a bill be prepared just and valid in its provisions and as practicable and simple as possible in its application.

Immediately following the adjournment of the Reforestation Committee a called meeting of the directors of the Chamber of Commerce was held at which the action of the first-named committee in its opposition to the bill was approved. An effort will also be made to induce similar action by all of the Chambers of Commerce of the three counties.

ED—DESERVED PROMOTION

The Register is pleased to note the appointment of Harold H. Moore to the office of city passenger and ticket agent for the Santa Fe at San Diego. Mr. Moore has been with the Santa Fe for many years, more recently holding the office of traveling passenger agent, with headquarters in Los Angeles. He is deservedly popular, both with his superior officers and with the traveling public. Talented as an after-dinner speaker, a writer of fine ability, with charming personality and a thorough railroad training, Mr. Moore is certain to achieve signal success in his new and more responsible office. San Diego is to be congratulated.

WHAT GEORGE NEEDS

George Randolph Chester, author of the "Get-Rich-Quick Wallingford" stories, has been divorced by his wife and has married his "soul-mate."

Chester is quoted as having said to his divorced wife:

"You are perfect in every way except one. This woman surpasses you in beauty. I must have that. My nature demands it—my soul cries out for it. I want you and her, too."

George Randolph may want two women, says the Sacramento Bee, but what he really needs is a good cow-hiding.

CHEAP LABOR NOT WANTED

G. W. Luce, director of freight traffic of the Southern Pacific, was in New York the other day and said, concerning the Panama canal:

"What we are particularly interested in is the stability of the labor market. Just as soon as the canal is opened the big employers of labor will be able to solve this problem of many years' standing, and by importation of unskilled labor handle the labor market in such a way as to clear the whole atmosphere. Ships will land Italian and other European laborers directly at San Francisco."

We heartily agree with the Sacramento Bee that the people of California will never encourage the clearing of the atmosphere by the importation of vast hordes of cheap labor if such labor is to compete with American labor and reduce it to the foreign wage level.

This state needs great armies of unskilled labor which will open up and develop the country, and at the same time will not prove detrimental to American labor, skilled or unskilled, for each is entitled to protection.

That was the labor which Mr. Luce probably meant.

It would have done no harm, however, had he made his meaning clear.

A STATE DEFICIT NOT A CALAMITY

State Senator Cutten, chairman of that body's finance committee, announces that the state treasury will show a deficit of nearly $500,000 at the end of the present fiscal year on June 30, 1912. Assuming that Senator Cutten has made an accurate forecast of the situation, it does not seem that the deficit which he predicts is a very serious matter. The prospect of a shortage has been known to inspire a wholesome spirit of economy.

There will probably be a deficit, and Mr. Cutten lays the blame on the constitutional amendment by which the revenue system was changed so that the corporations are made to carry the larger part of the cost of state government. Mr. Cutten declares that the state loses money by the operation of this amendment and he produces the following table of comparisons in exemplification of his proposition:

Total net receipts of state under old system for year 1909-10	$12,646,168.16
Normal increase of assessment in 1910-11 would have added	10 per cent
Total for present year, if under old system	$13,910,784.97
Actual receipts for present year	11,887,943.46

Loss from present system	$ 2,013,841.51
Add franchise tax, which might have been levied under old as well as under new system	1,677,870.00

Total loss to state for the year under the new system	$ 3,691,711.51
This is to say that if the old system had been in effect, the tax payers would now be paying $2,013,841 certainly, and possibly $3,691,711, more than the state now receives.

We quite fully agree with the San Francisco Call that this appears to be a very dubious sort of benefit if it is to be urged as a reason for returning to the former revenue system. The new plan for segregating sources of revenue adds nothing, as far as now appears, to the burdens of city or county government, and if we should hastily return to the old plan the general tax payer would have, on Mr. Cutten's showing, to make up at least $2,000,000 more for the support of the state government.

Let us give the new revenue system a fair trial and perhaps by the exercise of economy the present income may be made to prove sufficient. If there should be a real shortage we can then resort to the expedient suggested by Mr. Cutten of increasing the pro rata of gross earnings collectious transactions when they discovered those acts were under investigation. On August 15, Union was arraigned on a citation rule and reprimanded. He was discharged, but the three other defendants were held for a further hearing.

BEEF BARONS ARE ON TRIAL AT LAST

The climax of the grand jury's work came on September 12, when indictments were returned under the criminal section of the anti-trust law against the following ten magnates: Lewis F. Swift, president of Swift & Co.

Edward H. Swift, vice-president of Swift & Co.
Charles H. Swift, director of Swift & Co.

Edward Tildon, president of the National Packing Co., and also of the firm of Libby, McNeil & Libby.

Francis A. Fowler, of Fowler Bros. J. Oden Armour, president of Armour & Co.

Arthur Meeker, general manager of Armour & Co.
Thomas J. Connors, superintendent of Armour & Co.

Edward Morris, president of Morris & Co.
Louis H. Heyman, manager of Morris & Co.

Three indictments in all, containing seven counts, were returned against these packers. They were charged with a conspiracy to effect a combination in restraint of trade in fresh meats, and a monopolization of that industry by unlawful means.

Ten years growth of the packing industry is covered in the indictments, and a "continuing conspiracy" alleged, so that the defendants appearing at the bar today will be held for acts of nearly a decade ago.

After their indictment, the packing house magnates strove desperately to avoid the law's clutches. Their counsel filed a plea of abatement, argued that the "immunity" opinion of Judge Montgomery back in 1906 still exempted them from prosecution, and moved to quash the indictment. The litigation dragged through several more months.

Then, on March 22, 1911, U. S. District Judge Carpenter overruled all their pleas, sustained the indictment, and ordered the case to trial. More delay ensued while the packers' lawyers sparred for time by interposing every legal obstacle. On April 1, they demurred to the indictment. On April 13 this motion was argued, and on May 12, overruled by the court.

Grasping desperately for further expedients, attorneys for the indicted ten next filed a motion to set aside the decision of the court on the demurrer. The new doctrine of the "light of reason" announced by the supreme court of the United States in the Standard Oil case was advanced, the lawyers asserting that the packers' combine was a "reasonable combination."

On June 19, this obstacle to trial was removed by denial of the motion by Judge Carpenter. Next, counsel for the packers moved that the government be compelled to file a bill of particulars, specifying exactly wherein the trust was alleged to have violated the Sherman law. On June 23, this motion was likewise denied, and Judge Carpenter put a stop to all further dilatory tactics by requiring the indicted men to plead guilty or not guilty before July 5. On

CARDUI WORKED LIKE A CHARM

After Operation Failed to Help, Cardui Worked Like a Charm.

Jonesville, S. C.—"I suffered with womanly trouble," writes Mrs. J. S. Kendrick, in a letter from this place, "and at times, I could not bear to stand on my feet. The doctor said I would never be any better, and that I would have to have an operation, or I would have a cancer."

I went to the hospital, and they operated on me, but I got no better. They said medicines would do me no good, and I thought I would have to die.

At last I tried Cardui, and began to improve, so I continued using it. Now, I am well, and can do my own work. I don't feel any pains.

Cardui worked like a charm. There must be merit in this purely vegetable, tonic remedy, for women—Cardui—for it has been in successful use for more than 50 years, for the treatment of womanly weakness and disease.

Please try it, for your troubles. N. B.—Write to: Ladies' Advisory Dept., Chattanooga Medicine Co., Chattanooga, Tenn., for Special Instructions, and 64-page book, "Home Treatment for Women," sent in plain wrapper, on request.

KING AND QUEEN START FOR DELHI

Extra Precautions Taken to Guard the Royal Progress to Durbar City

BOMBAY, India, Dec. 6.—King George and Queen Mary today left Bombay for Delhi, where the Durbar will be held next Tuesday.

As a result of the burning of the royal reception tent at Delhi by an incendiary, the utmost precaution was taken by the officials of Bombay to guard their majesties during the procession to the station today. Troops lined the route to the depot from the government house and the royal carriages were so closely guarded by the cavalry escorts that it could scarcely be seen.

Extraordinary precautions have also been taken by the railroad officials to insure the safety of the royal train during its journey northward. The different stations have been notified that they will be held personally responsible for any untoward incident.

INTERESTING EVENING

Santa Ana "Y's" Discussed a Live Topic in Unique Way—Social Hour Enjoyed

One of the most interesting "Y" meetings of this year was held last night at the home of Roy Elliott on South Broadway, there being about thirty-five young people present.

After a short business meeting a lively round table discussion was held, "Civic Righteousness" being the subject for the evening. The crowd was divided into three groups, and each group was sent into a different room. Those in one room discussed whether or not the Bible should be used in the public schools, while those in another room discussed "What is the best way for a Christian to help others to overcome habits and temptations that are not of an uplifting character," while those in still another room talked of "How should the Sabbath be spent."

Music by the Baraca quartet and games followed, after which refreshments of apples, waters and peanuts, topped off with all day suckers were served.

Wedding Was Surprise

The recent marriage of Miss Harriet Rutherford, who has been sojourning at Elsinore Hot Springs for a couple of weeks past on account of her health, caused great surprise here as the bridegroom, George E. Allen of San Bernardino, is entirely a stranger in this city. The wedding took place at Riverside on Saturday last and the bride was accompanied by her sister, Miss Lillian Rutherford, who was a Thanksgiving guest of her sister at Elsinore.

The newly wedded couple expect to reside at the Stewart Hotel in San Bernardino. The bride is one of the best known girls in Santa Ana, where she has long resided. She is one of the firm of the Rutherford Millinery firm. A vivacious and charming girl, she has many friends who will wish her happiness in her new relation.

Short talks will be given by several of the High School pupils and musical numbers by the High School glee club will be given. Other numbers will be a piano duet by William and Ramona Clevenger and a vocal solo by Mrs. Carl Stock.

The parents are urged to be present and submit any question they would like discussed.

Socialist Union

The Woman's Socialist Union will meet at the home of Miss Olive Edgerton, 110 South French street on Thursday, the 7th inst., at 2:30. Any woman interested in social conditions is cordially invited to be present.

JOYOUS THANKSGIVING

The Little Ones of Day Nursery Had Lovely Thanksgiving Through Friends

The children of the Day Nursery opened their hearts and told the Rev. Samson all the many things they were thankful for and he in turn told them how they could express their thanks in good deeds and loving acts. Many remembered the Day Nursery beside the Rev. Samson. In fact the hearts of the city of Santa Ana are very warm to any good cause. The register shows sixty-eight names of children cared for at the Day Nursery. One little girl has been in the nursery since June 30 and two motherless children have been cared for since July 12.

We extend thanks to the following persons for donations: Mrs. H. C. FAMOUS PASTOR IS TO SPEAK SUNDAY

Pastor C. T. Russell, the famous preacher, will be in Los Angeles Sunday, Dec. 10. He is on his "round-the-world" trip and will speak in many of the leading cities on the route.

He speaks to crowded houses always and besides his personal contact with the people, his sermons and Sunday school lesson comments are published in more than 1200 newspapers in England and America. He thus reaches probably twelve or fifteen millions of people each week and is moulding religious thought more than any other minister or Bible teacher in the world today.

His "Studies in the Scriptures" has reached the enormous sale of nearly five million copies. More than 1000 people were turned away from Temple Auditorium and another hall for the overflow meeting, when he was in Los Angeles last June.

All his services are free and no collections or solicitations for money are ever made. The public discourse will be on "Which is the True Gospel?" Shrine Auditorium, 655 West Jefferson street.

CASCARETS INSURE INSIDE CLEANLINESS

The Millions of Cascaret Users Never Have Headache, Constipation, Biliousness or Sick Stomach

—It is more necessary that you keep your bowels, liver and stomach clean, pure and fresh than it is to keep the sewers and drainage of a large city free from obstruction.

Are you keeping clean inside with Cascarets—merely forcing a passage every few days with salts, cathartic pills or castor oil? This is important.

Cascarets immediately cleanse and regulate the stomach, remove the sour, undigested and fermenting food and foul gases; take the excess bile from the liver and carry out of the system the decomposed waste matter and poison in the intestines and bowels.

No odds how badly and upset you feel, a Cascaret tonight will straighten you out by morning. They work while you sleep. A 10-cent box from your druggist will keep your entire family feeling good for months. Don't forget the children—their little insides need a good, gentle cleansing, too.

The Royal Welsh Ladies' Choir

—Of all the Welsh musical organizations, the Royal Welsh Ladies' Choir has been first and foremost, not only to maintain the fame, but to set a standard to Welsh or any other choral singing that has never yet been excelled.

The visits of the Royal Welsh Ladies' Choir to America is by no means a new venture. Indeed, it is now a matter of history. Americans were first thrilled by these human nightingales from the land of song as early as 1893, when the musical daughters of Wales won a first prize at the World's Fair, Chicago. The choir was then under the direction of its founder and first leader, Madame Clara Novello Davies. In February of the following year, the late Queen Victoria commanded the choir to appear and sing before her at Osborne. The concert took place in the Indian Durbar room, in the presence of several of the crowned heads of Europe. As a proof that the Royal Welsh Ladies' Choir has, under the leadership of Madame Hughes Thomas, sustained the high standard and reputation established by the first choir, the choir as at present directed and constituted has won laurels in all lands and was also commanded to sing before the late King Edward VII. in the presence also of royalty.

The Royal Welsh Ladies' Choir stands—and sings—before the world today as the unsurpassed organization of its kind, and, incidentally, as the standard bearer through all lands of the superiority of the Welsh nation as a nation of singers. It would be a difficult task, indeed, to analyze this fact, but it can be realized in a most easy way—that is by going to listen to the choir when they visit Santa Ana Tuesday, Dec. 19th, at the Opera House.

The choir is visiting this city under the auspices of the Orange County Conservatory of Music. The choir is unique in a way, being a finely balanced and fully equipped collection of women singers, with a woman as conductor, who directs her chorus with dignity and intelligence. All her voices have a delightfully fresh quality. Musically intelligence is another marked feature, and these gifted young women displayed what can be done with good voices, for in volume and total beauty they accomplished what one would expect from double the number.—The Courier, Buffalo, N. Y.

SECRETARY OF NAVY ON NAVY YARDS AND BASES

Declares Panama Canal Will Become Most Strategical Point In The Western Hemisphere

WASHINGTON, Dec. 6.—In his annual report, Secretary of the Navy G. V. L. Meyer said regarding the abolition of the smaller and less necessary navy yards:

"The Panama canal, which for all practical purposes will become a part of our coast line and is destined to become the most important strategical point in the Western Hemisphere, makes a Caribbean naval base with adequate docking and repair facilities absolutely necessary. The best location for this station is Guantanamo Bay, Cuba, which we now hold. Assuming that we will continue to maintain a sufficient fleet, this base not only will enable us to control the Caribbean with all its lines of approach to the canal, but, with a torpedo base at Key West, will render the Gulf of Mexico immune from attack."

"The Panama canal will in effect be a naval base, since the docking and repair facilities to be provided there for commercial vessels will meet our naval requirements in time of war.

"If we were freshly confronted with the duty of locating and building the naval stations required in the Atlantic without regard to existing stations, the interests of the nation and the navy would be best served by the establishment of one first-class naval station on the coast north of the Delaware, equipped for docking, repairing, and provisioning at least half the entire fleet, and one station of the same capacity at Norfolk (Chesapeake Bay). This would be supplemented by a fleet rendezvous at Guantanamo with sufficient docking and repairing facilities to enable the fleet to maintain itself in that vicinity for considerable periods, but not for extensive repairs; a large torpedo boat base at Charleston; a torpedo and submarine boat base at Key West; and a station for the large reserve fleet at Philadelphia.

The Panama Canal
"The completion of the Panama canal, probably in the latter part of 1912, will immensely increase the efficiency and mobility of our battle fleet, and will make it possible, as it is desirable, to have the fleet spend a part of its time on the Pacific coast. The date at which it may be possible to pass the whole fleet through the canal can not be known until the completion of the canal itself; nor can it be definitely stated how frequently it may be desirable to transfer the fleet from one ocean to another by way of the canal. After the opening of the canal, however, it will be advisable for the fleet to spend part of its time in each ocean, and, as the passing through the canal as a fleet will be a war exercise as much as any other strategic movement of the fleet, it should be done often enough to thoroughly test the resources of the canal and the skill and efficiency of the fleet.

"It may be noted here, in connection with the matter of giving up navy yards, that, after the opening of the canal, when the fleet will spend part of its time in the Pacific ocean, the services of the eastern yards will be much less in demand than they have been heretofore. Should it be deemed wise in the future for the fleet to spend the greater part of its time on the Pacific coast, most of the navy yards on the eastern coast will automatically close themselves.

Naval Reviews
Of the naval review of both Atlantic and Pacific fleets on Nov. 2, 1911, the first at New York and the other at San Pedro, Secretary Meyer says, among other things:
"While the review on the Pacific coast was much smaller in size than that on the Atlantic coast, it was eminently successful and particularly interesting in that it contained the battleship Oregon, recently reconstructed. The fleet went to San Pedro harbor on the morning of November 1 for review by the commander in chief and a number of senators, representatives, and other distinguished people, who reviewed the fleet from the gunboat Vicksburg."

IF MANY A WIFE KNEW ABOUT ORRINE

—There would be less of the terrible affliction that comes to many homes from the excessive drinking of husband, father, or son. Orrine has restored thousands of men to lives of sobriety and industry, and best of all they have made their loved ones happier.

Orrine is prepared in two forms, pill and powder; the latter form can be given secretly. Only costs $1.00 a box—a trifle when compared with the amount a man would spend for drink in a day. We have sold ORRINE for years, and will gladly tell you all about it. Come in and get a free booklet.

From time to time it is our purpose to remind everybody who cares to read the advertisements that appear in the Register that we are still "do-in" business at the same old stand, and perhaps some newcomer may thereby learn that we have the goods he will need, and if we can only induce him to come and get our prices of HARDWARE and stoves—Hoes, Forks, Rakes and Shovels; Barbed Wire, Wire Fencing and Wire Cloth; Bath Tubs, Sinks, Bowls and Toilets; Rubber Hose Rubber Belting, Washing Machines and Wringers and the thousand other things we have in stock, then he will know what he ought to pay the other fellow if he should choose to buy of him instead of us.

If we shall have set the tenderfoot on the right track so that he will not be too badly "taken in" we shall have accomplished one part of our mission in life and then if, perchance, he should conclude to return and buy of us the things he needs we shall have completed the job that we came here to do, which job we have been expecting to finish right here—make a living—and we are do-in' it one day at a time. Bell Peppers

Go to Seattle

Orange county products go to all parts of the United States. An evidence of the popularity of this is furnished in the fact that yesterday F. A. White, produce shipper of Santa Ana, shipped to Seattle a ton of bell peppers and 1500 pounds of tomatoes. The ranchers of the Villa Park district are expecting the biggest shipment of its history in green winter vegetables. Reports from all the districts where green vegetables are raised—and Orange county produces a vast quantity of green vegetables—indicate that the output will be big and the quality as usual extra fine.

the Southern Pacific was changed from Wanda to Villa Park, so that there is now a uniformity of names in that section.

A petition taking from Orange school district and adding to Villa Park school district all of that portion of Orange school district east of Tustin avenue was granted.

H. C. Page, B. F. Kinney and County Surveyor McBride were appointed viewers of the A. H. Dunlap road, and J. A. Knapp, Jerome Pulsone and McBride of the E. L. Metcalf road. The report of the viewers of the H. L. Wakeham road was set for Jan. 3.

A. Ian Franco was granted permission to lay a pipeline across a county road in El Modena district. Maps accepted were Laguna Cliffs No. 2, Sharratt & Harris addition to Wintersburg and Orange Wood tract.

NINETY DAYS
FOR CORDOVA

Bad Man From Delhi Will Have to Be Good for Next Three Months

Rafiro Cordova, reputed to be a bad hombre of Delhi, was given ninety days in the county jail for his part in a fracas at Delhi yesterday afternoon, and Pedro Ontiveras, with whom Cordova fought, will pay a fine of $15. Cordova was in jail recently on a charge of stealing a revolver, but the act was not proven. According to the story told in court today and the information received by the officers, Cordova is a trouble maker. It developed that he had been threatening Pedro for some time.

Yesterday Constable Squires was called to Delhi to quell a disturbance. He found that the two men had been having a fist fight. Pedro declared that he had done nothing, only fought with his fist, as though it were necessary for some one to have a gun or a knife to constitute a real fight.

Both men pleaded guilty to disturbing the peace.

Sample Ballots Worded
According To The Law

Voters of Santa Ana are today receiving through the mail their sample ballots for the bond election to be held on Dec. 14. An examination of these ballots has led many to wonder why the amount of the proposed issue is made known in the case of the grammar school bonds and not made known in regard to the high school bonds. This matter is fully explained in the following statement from City Attorney Heathman, who prepared the copy from which the sample ballots were printed:

"These ballots are printed strictly according to law," said the city attorney. "The law is different for the control of an election for bonds for a high school district than for the control of a school district. The law for the school district, or common or grammar school district as we sometimes call it, requires that the words 'School district bonds—Yes,' and 'School district bonds—No' shall be used, but that law does not prohibit the use of other words as well, so I took advantage of that latitude to put down '$25,000 school district bonds.' 'When it came to the high school bonds, the law is mandatory as to the wording of the ballot. The law says that the words to appear on the ballot shall be 'High school bonds—Yes,' and 'High school bonds—No.' 'That is all there is to it. I did not put down the amount, $200,000, proposed for the high school issue, because the law prohibited the use of any other wording than the wording I used.'

Local Packing-house Hunting For Fruit That is Well Colored
